PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violations contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violations previously reported to the Court on 11/11/2013, 11/27/2013 and 12/16/2013.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

6	Mandatory Condition #3: The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.
---	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Supporting Evidence: Ramiro Villa is considered in violation of his term of supervised release in the Eastern District of Washington by possessing marijuana on or prior to January 8, 2014.

On January 8, 2014, the U.S. Marshals Service arrested the defendant at his mother's residence. During a search of the defendant's person, a small plastic bag containing a green leafy substance was located in his front pocket. The defendant was not charged with the suspected marijuana, but it was provided to probation to be used in the violation process.

The suspected marijuana was tested at the probation office with a NIC test on January 8, 2014. The test confirmed the presence of marijuana.

7	Standard Condition #7: The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any controlled substance or any paraphernalia related to any controlled substance, except as prescribed by a physician.

Re: Villa, Ramiro Josue

January 8, 2014

Page 2

Supporting Evidence: Ramiro Villa is considered in violation of his term of supervised release in the Eastern District of Washington by possessing drug paraphernalia on or prior to January 8, 2014.

As noted above, the defendant was arrested by the U.S. Marshals Service on January 8, 2014. During a search of the defendant's person, a glass pipe with a white residue was located in his front pocket. The defendant was not charged for possessing the paraphernalia but it was provided to probation to be used in the violation process.

The residue was tested at the probation office with a NIC test on January 8, 2014. The test confirmed the presence of methamphetamine.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on: 01/09/2014
